I talked about my wife and I and how we communicate—though not a perfect relationship. Share the ways in which you relate with your spouse. If you're not married, list a few things crucial to you as far as family life is concerned.
Finally, discuss how you balance family life and children (if any—biological or not) as well as friends and loved ones, considering the personal examples elaborated in the chapter.

reas that you	consider values whic	e? List five (! compromis

- 1		*
111			17
	Maria A

Let me leave you with this question: what role model are you? In what field?

nigh morals and areas where yeps do you plan to take to turn opportunities?
V

Which areas do you see as an oppor as social ethics are concerned? Reme personal life (beyond the examples in that assessment and be honest about	ember to look into your the chapter) and make 3
5
7
4
4
M
A STATE OF THE STA
	_

I shared a few nuggets on the three parts to a human being: body, mind and soul/spirit and others. Visit your innermost person to share your thoughts, experiences and what you intend to do to add value to your life in terms of achieving good health.

Also, why does it matter (after reading this chapter) to integrate healthy living (physical emotional and social) as

	s happiness leading
(0)	*
131

eaithy ii	fe living? Expla	ain.
	`
111
1

Share a list of five to ten good friends and loved ones you

N bd
7/1/2
THE STATE OF THE S	THE
7		1	440/4
	ns do you r		ut off and	which on ns do you r amend or in		ut off and	which on
			ut off and	which on
			ut off and	which on
			ut off and	which on
			ut off and	which on
			ut off and	which on
			ut off and	which on

7

ccer	oting pe	opie iri	your c	iomain.
<
	7///	- 31
	1/2	*
			3
	share was th			you ha	ve ex	oerienc	ced r	ejection

iagement	me cases in which you have given a wron and what it led to.
what way	vs do you often acquire new knowledge?
ı what way	vs do you often acquire new knowledge?
what way	vs do you often acquire new knowledge?
what way	vs do you often acquire new knowledge?
n what way	vs do you often acquire new knowledge?
n what way	vs do you often acquire new knowledge?

	1
77/	Sec. 3

climb the ladder? Or do you need both to realize the entir circumference of life's path? What is missing in your caree path?
	_
	_
	_
	_
	_

The phrase human relationship is even more important than knowledge—to what extent do you see it so?
Do you agree or disagree that human relations are crucial in anything you do? Explain your answer.
Even though I understand that people can be weird, we still have to live alongside with them with tact! Share what ticks you off and prevents you from having a good relationship with someone?

	places, and with colleagues and family consider necessary in communication
onsidering the ide	eas shared in the chapter?
100
100
MI

	Y
	W.
X

With the knowledge of reputation as capital, share where you have lots of 'investments' (reputational capital) or where you will increase investment as far as reputation is concerned?
A STATE OF THE STA

Share y	our goal	s using th	e S.M.A.I	R.T modul	e as a pra	ctice.
		31
	(8)	18
When w	ve say, 't	ime manag	gement,'	what does	s it mean t	to you?

What steps will you take to stay ahead of the financial cur for your future? Share about five areas and give a speci timeline.
	_

Identify the things you have in your hands in terms of nities will you e missed in th	offset any of the o offset any of the o offset any of the

-

			assions and ify your true ź
7
A Alex
3 15

Can you identify your leadership style? What are new thing you've learned from this chapter that you intend to adopt?

hare your organization or other leadership p ee here, good or bad.	erspective y

What is your grand strategy? What do other people see in you as madness? Is it instead your secret wisdom?
In addition, share your country of origin's grand strategy if you know it (or what you think it is). If in doubt, interview about three people in political leadership positions and compare notes.
Finally, share your organization grand strategy perspective here.

		W r Alicenson
lace? In	fact, how will	you be rem	hind when you embered, con lace? In		you be rem	embered, con
lace? In	fact, how will	you be rem	embered, con
lace? In	fact, how will	you be rem	embered, con
lace? In	fact, how will	you be rem	embered, con
lace? In	fact, how will	you be rem	embered, con
place? In	fact, how will	you be rem	embered, con

With your understanding of this chapter do you intend to make as far as taking a collaboration, and being relatable? List
-/
4
/
What won't you do?
$\sim A$

What areas do you think you need to improve in your customer service offerings?

	+
Review the above list after six months to see the effects amend accordingly. What differences have you identif Life is always about change and learning to be better. only constant in life is CHANGE, remember?	ied?

ve?
	Volume 111

A A A A A

		5
	7
	7
- 1
What does ch	naracter r	mean to	you?
A 7

Determine the five to seven things that you used to do the made you happy and fulfilled, however, you don't anymore; probably due to other commitments?	JC
,

List another five to seven things that you need to do as a way of finding fulfillment regardless of your current situation; be it children, position or other commitments that makes it difficult to make it a reality.
Finally, do you consider fulfillment the way it is portrayed in this chapter as important to you? What does fulfillment mean to you, knowing that we all describe satisfaction differently.

7
	1